

Friends of the English Regency

WELCOME TO THE 1981 ASSEMBLY

The 1981 Assembly of the Friends of the English Regency will be held in the San Francisco and San Diego Rooms of the Travelodge International Hotel at LAX, at 9750 Airport Blvd., Los Angeles, CA. on March 6th-8th. For those flying, a free hotel shuttle can be called from the baggage claim area of your flight terminal.

Room rates at the Travelodge are $48 for a single, $56 for a double. Please call the hotel for reservations, at (213) 645-4600. Please remember to state that you are with the Friends of the English Regency.

The Assembly will commence with an informal get-together on Friday night, March 6, to meet people, chat, play cards and dance. This will start about 8:00 p.m. in the San Francisco/San Diego rooms. You can pick up your registration materials at this time.

Saturday's functions, March 7, will begin at 9:00 a.m., with registration. Dance instruction will begin at 10:00 a.m. and continue throughout the day, with tea being served about 2:00 p.m. Dinner will be served starting at 7:00 p.m. Wine service will be available. The Ball will begin directly after dinner.

Sunday's functions, March 8, will begin with a buffet brunch at 10:00 a.m. Dancing will follow, and again tea will be served about 2:00 p.m. Dancing will continue until about 6:00 p.m.

Raffle tickets, at the cost of $1.00 per ticket, will be available starting on Friday night, and will be sold throughout the weekend. The raffles will take place approximately twice daily on Saturday and Sunday. We have many interesting items, among them many feather fans, decks of cards, historical books and souvenirs from the Brighton Pavilion. A small sales table with books and other things will also be set up on both days. All proceeds will go into the treasury of the Friends of the English Regency.
